7 APPLE, INC.,

8 Defendant.

9 Case No. 21-cv-03958-JSW (SK)

10 ORDER REGARDING MOTION TO
FILE UNDER SEAL

11 Regarding Docket No. 87

12 Defendant Apple Inc. (“Apple”) filed a motion to file an amended protective order and to 13 file the entire amended order and supporting declaration under seal. The Court notes that requests
14 to file under seal should be narrowly tailored, which the current motion is not. Moreover, Apple
15 seeks to file under seal portions of the protective order which have already been publicly filed.
16 The Court DENIES Apple’s motion without prejudice. By no later than September 6, 2022, Apple
17 shall file an amended motion to amend the protective order and to file portions of it under seal.
18 Apple shall only request to seal the portions of the declaration and proposed amended order which 19 are actually necessary to protect sensitive information. Moreover, Apple shall comply with 20 Northern District Local Rule 79-5, including provisionally filing under seal an unredacted copy
21 highlighting the portions which Apple requests to file under seal. Additionally, Apple shall 22 inform the Court as to what changes to the protective order Apple is requesting and actually file a
23 motion to approve the amended protective order. Lastly, the Court admonishes Apple that the 24 undersigned requires parties to email their proposed orders to skpo@cand.uscourts.gov in 25 Microsoft Word format.

28 ///

1 Apple's declaration and proposed amended protective order shall remain locked while the
2 Court awaits and considers Apple's amended motion.

3 IT IS SO ORDERED.
